get a grip

Do people accuse you of being angry?

Do you try to suppress your anger?

Do you live with or work with people who are frequently angry?

Many people think their anger is not a problem because it surfaces only “once in a while.” How would you like to live next to a volcano that only erupted “once in a while”?

The seriousness of unresolved anger is indicated by the fact that this was a primary topic of Christ’s Sermon on the Mount. The Anger Resolution Seminar explains eight attitudes that are foundational to resolving anger.

ANGER RESOLUTION SEMINAR overview

Anger is the number-one cause of damaged marriages, abused children, and violence in the home, school, and workplace. The Anger Resolution Seminar is an intensive three-day video seminar that covers a variety of issues designed to help you conquer your anger and heal broken relationships.

Learn how to trace conflicts back to their origins and take steps of action to resolve anger and rebuild relationships that have been damaged.

In addition to resolving anger, discover how to prevent it through giving verbal blessings and through understanding why God allows bad things to occur.

The truths offered at this seminar have helped many youth and adults experience lasting freedom from anger, because these truths reveal how God's truth and power can achieve what we cannot achieve.

—Randy from North Carolina

"God has used the abuse I endured as a child for good in my life as I have learned forgiveness and now have the opportunity to effectively minister to other women who have experienced the same trauma."
